Miami Valley Salute to Veterans is a television series focusing on veterans from local communities sharing their stories of service.

Stories of determination and dedication from veterans are all around us, and sharing those memories of military service is the purpose of a new television series presented by the Miami Valley Communications Council (MVCC).

Miami Valley Salute to Veterans invites residents of the Greater Miami Valley Region to tell their stories for families and viewers.

The series is produced in cooperation with host Cindy LaPointe-Dafler, Gold Star wife and widow of Medal of Honor recipient Joseph Guy LaPointe Jr., a combat medic in the United States Army posthumously recognized for his actions during the Vietnam War.
